

Contraindications for Children's Health program

1. Children under 5 years of age.
2. All diseases in the acute period.
3. Somatic diseases requiring inpatient care.
4. Quarantine period after past infectious diseases.
5. Carrying diphtheria and intestinal infectious diseases germs.
6. All infectious and parasitic skin and eye diseases.
7. Malignant neoplasms, pernicious anemia, leukemia.
8. Amyloidosis of internal organs.
9. Pulmonary tuberculosis and tuberculosis of other organs.
10. Seizures and their equivalents, intellectual disability, pathological personality development with apparent behavior disorders and social adjustment disorders.
11. Patients requiring constant individualized care.
12. Mental disorders.